

JOIN THE ETSU STRING CLINIC

EAST TN AND WRO NC ALL STATE AUDITIONS PREPARATION

East Tennessee State University's
Department of Music invites high school string students to our String Clinic on Saturday, November 1, 2025.

This one-day event, led by the ETSU string faculty and special guest William Shaub (KSO Concertmaster), is designed to help students strengthen their skills and prepare for All-State auditions.

William Shaub
Violin

Marianna Brickle
Violin

Ignacy Gaydamovich
Cello

David Kovac
Viola

Joe Gaskins
Double Bass

Highlights include:

- Focused coaching on audition excerpts, scales, and sight-reading
- Faculty-led masterclasses and sectional work
- Tips for effective practicing and performance confidence
- Opportunity to meet ETSU faculty and explore our music program

Who should attend:

High school violin, viola, cello, and bass students preparing for All-State auditions.

Schedule: 9:30am - 4pm

- Morning: Warm-ups, scales, and sight-reading strategies
- Midday: Sectionals with faculty coaches
- Afternoon: Mock auditions and performance tips
- A full schedule will be shared with registrants.

Important Details

- Date: Saturday, November 1, 2025
- Location: ETSU, Department of Music – Johnson City, TN - Mathes Hall
- Registration Deadline: Tuesday, October 15, 2025
- Faculty: ETSU String Faculty

 Click here to register

What to bring:

- Your instrument and music (excerpts & scales)
- A pencil for notes
- Enthusiasm to learn and improve!

For questions, please contact:
Ignacy Gaydamovich
Email: gaydamovichg@etsu.edu
Phone: 617 817 7973

We look forward to welcoming you to campus and helping you shine in your All-State audition!

